Our former fellow citizen, Mr. May S. Walker, now of Tallahassee, has lately become a happy papa.

Miss Susie Cason, of Carrabelle, is visiting friends in Crawfordville, the guest of M'ss Florida Walker.

Mr. J. H. Gray, of Sopchoppy, was in town several days this week working on the teachers grading committee.

Col. Nat R. Walker has been absent the past few days attending to legal business in Leon and Gadsden counties.

Mr. Charles Luffe and family, and Mr. Burt Rude moved to their fishing haunts on Spring Creek last Saturday.

A party of boys went 'possum hunting a few nights ago, headed by Col. Nat Walker, and pulled five fat possums.

Health certificates are demanded now nearly every where you go. Better take one along if you are going any where.

Miss Lula Walker left Monday to complete her education at the Female college in Athens Ala. She will be absent 10 months.

Mr. Green, being on the teachers grading committee was kept busy Monday and Tuesday and had to suspend school until Wednesday.

Our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. John Harvey, is dangerously ill, and as the old gentleman is nearly eighty years of age, his recovery is doubtful.

School Superintendent S. M. Revels has been as busy as a bee in a tar buck for the past two weeks getting the county schools started off in good shape.

Field peas are said to be the most profitable field crop that can be grown, for they are better than timothy or clover, now is the time for saving peavine hay.

U. S. Post Office Inspector, Tate was here Monday looking into the management of the post office. Our postmaster was absent but everything was found O. K.

Our Lord High Mayor F. W. Duval, Sheriff Walker, Col. McLeod and Mr. R. B. Council each with a large force of hands are cutting a public road from here to Spring Creek. They are making it a regular boulevard.

Dr. George Troup Maxwell, brother of our esteemed fellow citizen, Capt. Richard Maxwell, died last week at the home of his daughter in Jacksonville. The Doctor was well known and highly esteemed in this part of the State, he having resided and practiced medicine many years in Tallahassee.

Quigg shoots Sangster.

A misunderstanding between Mr. J. M. Quigg and Mr. J. R. Sangster, about a team with which they were hauling logs on the Ocklocknee river resulted last Friday, in Quigg shooting Sangster.

The shot were small and the wounds are by no means serious.

At the commitment trial last Tuesday, Quigg, through his attorneys, Colonels Nat R. Walker and R. Don McLeod, waived examination, and asked the court to assess a bond, which was fixed at $500. The defendant is now in jail, but hopes to be able, in a few days to get up the bond.

Six deeds, to town lots in the town of Vineland in Wakulla county were recorded last week by County Clerk J. J. Harrell. These deeds all came from the North and the clerk informs us that he had previously recorded about seventy five others just like these. There is no such town in Wakulla county nor in Florida, and some one is evidently playing the old St. Andrews Bay game on the gullable class of the North.

Jim Holloway, who came near killing Mr. S. P. Horne last Friday, was tried Monday before Judge Giles. He pleaded self defense and justification, and was sustained and acquitted by the jury. All the State witnesses testified that Mr. Horne was under the influence of liquor and was advancing on the defendant with an open knife and that the attack was unprovoked.

Annie Nicholson and Walter Hicks, two well known colored citizens quietly slipped off Sunday and got married. When Frank Nicholson, the father of Annie heard of what was about to happen, he armed himself with a big stick and started on the warpath, but it was all over before he found the runaways and he finally decided not to take the scalp of his new son-in-law.

The Quarantine against Mobile is going to be a great inconvenience to the trade of Crawfordville. Our merchants deal largely with Mobile, and Capt. Walker had ordered considerable goods and was waiting for some of them to be shipped when the quarantine was ordered.

Several experts swore positively this week, that the remnant of bones found in Luetgert's sausage factory, were the femur bones of a woman. This with her wedding ring and other things found in the debris, is making out a pretty strong case without any positive proof of sausage-maker's wife's death.

The following remedy against weevils is said to never fail. For protecting seed peas put in a tight barrel, pour two ounces bisulphide of carbon over the top and quickly cover close. This will kill all weevil. Examine occasionally and if weevil begin to appear give them another dose.

Monticello Constitution;—George Jackson, a negro arrested recently by constable Hampton for cutting the throat of a horse not his own, and who got away, was captured Monday on the Condon place, between Monticello and Grooverville.

A new source of revenue, one heretofore unexpected has recently been added to Florida's varied sources of wealth. The mineral waters from the now famous Panacea Springs in Wakulla county, are being bottled and shipped to all parts of the United States.

Mr. George Floyd has quit eating Chicago sausage, until the jury decides whether or not the wife of Luetgert disappeared naturally, or went into her husbands sausage business.

The starting up of Capt. Walker's ginnery has been delayed by having to wait for some pieces of machinery, ordered several weeks ago.

Oil Still Items.

BY E. J. D.

In this section crops are good and the people are prosperous and comparatively happy.

We attended a sociable at the house of our hospitable friend Mr. J. J. Warren a few nights ago which was greatly enjoyed by all.

A few cases of fever are reported in this section, though none of a serious character.

The exercises of the Oil Still school were resumed on Monday last.

It is school these days; and it is cool these nights.

Our genial friend Mr. J. L. Hall is making some internal improvement, in the way of enlarging his house in a tasty and workman-like manner.

Our enterprising friend Mr. G. C. Floyd is engaged in superintending erection of tenement houses for Mr. Charlie Cay, in the Pin Hooks settlement.

The yield of the rice crop in this section, will not quite reach the expectation of the farmers, though other crops are a little above the average.

Tobacco culture is contemplated by some in this section next season.

Alligator hunting has somewhat subsided.

A store is very much needed at Oil Still.

The St. Marks R. R. in this section is being put in a much better condition and the speed of the trains is somewhat improved.

INVENTION WITH FIGURES.

The educational device of which Mr. W. O. Hall is the author, is growing in popularity as well as popularity.

While the interest method, is of all we have ever seen, the most simple and condensed, its pointing qualities seem unexcelled and even automatic, which renders the computation of interest as easy as the ordinary scholar, as a result of prose.

Endorsement of this system is furnished as able as the State of Florida on the coast of.

While the appendices cover many pages of analyzed and clearly explained mathematical examples, which are practical to a science, each of which is an absolute key to thousands of calculations of a similar nature.

The treatise on the horse, far exceeds even the original imagination of the author, and is considered by many to be worth more than thrice the price of the entire combination.

We are told that some salesmen have been more than a hundred reliable orders in one weeks time, some days reaching the rate of $18 commissions. Others without experience are starting at $8.00, and expect soon to exceed $10.00 per month.

Many unsolicited orders have been taken, the applicants having already heard from other buyers in whom they had confidence sufficient to know they wanted it without further inquiry or delay.

Our salesmen have stated that they have never missed a sale when offered and explained.

Among the hundreds that have been taken there are many persons of wealth and first class citizenship, notwithstanding it is particularly addressed to the masses.

There seems to be an opportunity for sales of will an ability to engage as agents or salesmen, as the demand is general, the field is as large as the United States, the cause a worthy one and the cost a trifle.

The fishing season is to Wakulla county, what the cotton shipping season is to Georgia. The aggregated amount of money that it brings into the county is simply immense.

My Fall and Winter stock of Dry Goods is now complete. I have a nice line of calicoes, gingham, cotton plaids, bleaching, sea islands, shirtings, cheviots, stripes, tickings, sheetings, pants goods, cambrics, linings, flannels, blankets, gents and ladies' underwear.
